It was required to go to the Mayors office for review first as part of the whole package, which didn't happen due to some sort of internal communication breakdown, so they did that and as far as I can tell it got pushed back a month altogether.

That is the direct answer. The technical answer is that a necessary Transmittal was sent to the Mayor on Jan. 23, and there is a 24 day deadline response period. After that it should go to PLUM. I am trying to get a committed timeline from them on it stay tuned.
